

365.230 Telegraph and telephone companies to furnish services to newspapers without discrimination.

Every telegraph company, telephone company, or other company engaged in buying, gathering or transmitting dispatches shall afford the same and equal facilities to all publishers of newspapers, and shall furnish all news or information collected by them for publication to all newspapers published in any one county or locality on the same conditions as to terms, payment and delivery.

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 883a-4.